Dear Valued Customer,

Brazoria County Water Corporation has implemented a response to Covid- 19 and our service will continue without interruption. We are taking steps to help our customers through these trying times. Effective April 1, 2020 we have suspended service disconnections for 30 days. We encourage our customers to continue making payments in order to avoid adding to any outstanding balance, during this time we will be offering payment plans to customers who indicate either an impact or hardship as a result of Covid-19. We value our customers and are here to help and encourage you and our community,

Sincerely,

The staff at Brazoria County Water Corporation
